Expressions of Gratitude

The family of Louis Leander Brooks wishes to express our sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude for every act of kindness, every prayer, every comforting word, every visit, every floral tribute, and every expression of love and sympathy shown during our time of bereavement.

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me. I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now-He set me free*

Remembering LOUIS

Louis Leander Brooks was born on February 5, 1942, in Nottingham, Maryland, to the late Nelson Brooks and Mary Harper-Brooks. He was the last surviving sibling of 5 children. On Friday, July 17, 2026, Louis peacefully entered eternal rest, surrounded by the love and presence of his family.

Louis received his education in the Prince George's County Public School System and attended Frederick Douglass High School. After completing his education, he began what would become a distinguished 40-year career with the Prince George's County Department of Public Works as a Heavy Equipment Operator. Throughout his years of service, Louis was known for his dedication, dependability, and exceptional work ethic. His commitment to his profession earned him the admiration and respect of both his coworkers and the community he faithfully served.

Louis married Veronica M. Johnson, and together they were blessed with five children: Wanda Halman, Donna Ash, Robert Brooks, Phillip Brooks, Kenneth Brooks and God daughter Angela Brooks. He was also blessed with two sons-in-law and one daughter-in-law, each of whom he welcomed into the family with love, kindness, and open arms.

Later in life, Louis remarried Theresa Brooks, who preceded him in death. Through their union, he lovingly embraced two stepdaughters, the late Tonja Robinson and Pamela Washington, as well as an additional son-in-law. His blended family was a source of great pride and joy, and he cherished every member with the same unwavering love and devotion.

Louis was a devoted member of Apostle Faith Church of God, Inc., where he faithfully served under the leadership of the late Bishop G. B. White. It was there that he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior, a life-changing decision that became the foundation of his faith and guided him throughout his life. His trust in God was evident in the way he loved others, cared for his family, and carried himself with humility and grace.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his loving children; his beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren; his nieces and nephews; extended family members; dear friends; and all whose lives were enriched by his kindness, wisdom, and gentle spirit.

Louis will be remembered for his quiet strength, unwavering integrity, steadfast faith, and deep love for his family. His calm presence, generous heart, and enduring example of hard work and devotion have left an indelible mark on everyone who had the privilege of knowing him.

Though he has departed from this earthly life, his legacy of love, faith, and family will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished.
